

That's what I'm talking about

HAMILTON
relay

Talia Rubiano
Staff Interpreter/Marketing Projects Coordinator
Hometown: Madison, WI

"I love that there are so many beautiful lakes and rivers throughout Wisconsin. Every year, my family and I look forward to camping along the Wisconsin River."

That's what I'm talking about

Broccoli Garlic Spaghetti

Ingredients:

1/4 - 1/3 cup of olive oil

5 garlic cloves

*1 large fresh head of broccoli

1 package of noodles (can use spaghetti, penne, bowtie or any favorite of yours)

Parmesan cheese

You can substitute broccoli with cauliflower – or use a mixture of both!*

Directions:

In a small skillet, simmer garlic in olive oil until the garlic turns a light brown color. Remove garlic from oil and set oil aside. Boil the spaghetti noodles and broccoli (in separate pots) until tender. Drain. Mix the broccoli, spaghetti and olive oil together. Top with Parmesan cheese.